

NEWSIES PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS

Republican Laddies Have Times of Their Lives as Guests of Gilmer Brown and Manager Reeves at the Elks Theater

Imagine one hundred lusty lugged, healthy, happy boys marching along the principal streets, each carrying a copy of The Republican and a lighted candle. Imagine five score youngsters, guests of Gilmer Brown and Manager A. H. Reeves, occupying front seats in the gallery of the Elks theater during two hours and one-half of the action of an interesting dramatization of an interesting story. Enthusiasm personified is the best description of such a happening.

That's just what did obtain last evening when The Republican sent its newsies to see one of the best plays that a stock company ever put on in the local house.

Long before the hour set for the departure of the "troop" of kids, the street in front of the Republican office was thronged with the boys who had been wearing for two days large tags printed in red announcing they were going to the show at the Elks. And finally the circulation manager appeared with an armful of candles and instructed the boys that they were to light their candles and keep them burning until the theater was reached. One little boy appeared with tears in his eyes and told a pitiful story of a larger boy taking his tag away from him. He feared that he had lost the chance of seeing the show. A new tag was furnished him. And then the march began. Along Adams to First street the procession formed and then proceeded down to Washington street and on out to the Elks theater. There they were lined up, gave vent to three hearty cheers, turned in their candles and trooped upstairs.

It was a good show. Mr. Brown never appeared to better advantage than he did in the role of "Hates." Miss Lykins was good and the entire company entered into the support of the two principals with spirit.

This afternoon and evening Gilmer Brown and company will present "The Tribulations of Jimmy" on of the most laughable comedies upon the road.

The first show of its kind in Arizona—Goldwater's "Fashion Show."

PLAN BIG FAIR FOR MIDSUMMER

Farmers' Institute Directors Name Committee to Take Up Work of Arranging for the Annual Maricopa County Exposition

Maricopa county is to have another mid-summer fair. Two days in July will witness a gathering of exhibits that will far surpass those of the single day of the first annual event. This much was decided upon by the board of directors of the farmer's institute at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms. The details were given into the hands of a committee to be known as the Maricopa county fair central committee. This committee was named as follows: P. Apple, Tempe; A. S. Reed, Phoenix; J. E. McClain, Tempe; P. I. Edson, Ernest Hall, Phoenix; M. J. Dougherty, Mesa; H. A. Hammels, Liberty; J. O. Barnard, Prof. A. M. McCombe of the Phoenix agricultural experiment station.

The real work will begin upon the occasion of the first meeting of this committee scheduled for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Board of Trade rooms. At that time it is expected that the premium list will be perfected and preliminary arrangements made for beginning the work.

Just before the close of the meeting, representatives of the Arizona Poultry Association who had been meeting in an adjoining room visited the farmers' institute directors and asked for cooperation in the furtherance of the work of the hen men. The association has called for a general meeting two weeks from yesterday to be held in the Water Users' assembly room, at which time definite action will be taken by the poultry association looking to representation at the mid-summer fair.

The first annual mid-summer fair in Maricopa county was held last year on the city hall plaza. It lasted one day and was more of a success than had been anticipated. With two days this year it is believed that the fair will be an even greater success.

Owing to the resignation of George Alkire from the presidency of the board of directors of the farmers' institute, J. E. McClain was yesterday unanimously chosen his successor.

BOXING AND WRESTLING CARD AT PATRICK HALL

A bit of boxing, some wrestling possibly and a whole lot of song will star the program for the athletic treat at Patrick hall next Tuesday night. The same bunch of local boxers who have appeared in all the bouts pulled off lately will be in the ring at various times and in various combinations such as seemed best to the match maker. The starters are Young Jack Johnson and Manuel Avilez. Avilez it will be remembered went on with the dinge before and came out second best. He has always said he could make the smoke look like a thin and watery vapor and here is his chance. In addition to this event and the other lesser goes among some of the youngsters of the town is the much heralded coming of Clara May, the charming little prima donna with the Creators' band who is well known from her former appearance in Phoenix. J. R. LaMarche is the promoter of the affair.

DITCH CLEANING JOB GOES A BEGGING

Only Three Inquiries Made on Contract and but One of Them a Farmer.

Preference for the good old soil, the federal eight hour law or something equally potent has kept morn a hundred Salt River Valley farmers from bidding on the ditch cleaning test job, which was to have been done by contract—and may yet if anyone comes along to take an interest. Monday is the day for the opening of bids on approximately seventy miles of main canal and lateral, partly on the north and part on the southside. Advertisements have been in the paper for a week and more and there has been a grand total of three men inquired at the offices of the reclamation service for information about the job. And only one of the three was a farmer. The other two were a business man and a contractor. There are two possible reasons for the enthusiasm with which the farmers are letting the ditch cleaning contracts alone. One is the season is a busy one, with preparations for planting, and the other is that the eight hour law prevents the rural habitant from taking a contract and then letting an Indian or a Mexican work fourteen hours a day on the job. The specifications are so worded that a man can take all or any part of the contract. The job is of the nature of the Water Users' board of governors stated that the farmer can clean the ditches by contract for just half what the reclamation service can do the work. The work is divided as follows: Under Grand Canal—Lateral 19, six miles, main lateral and 18 miles of sub-lateral. Eastern Canal—19 1/2 miles of main canal and 26 miles main lateral and 9 of sub-lateral. The work consists of clearing out weeds, excavating sand, trimming the side slopes, clearing the rights of way, excavating to fill and repair breaks and riprapping.
